KING MIDAS

A PLAY FOR CHILDREN

BY CHARLOTTE CHORPENNING

CONCE upon a time King Midas was showing the beauty of his garden and the power of his wealth to his beloved daughter when the Goddess of Wishes asked him to choose one wish. He wished that everything he touched might turn to gold, and he found his wish was instantly granted. Fearful lest he touch his daughter and other things he loved, he tried wearing gloves. This plan did not work out and his daughter helped him to escape from the dreadful things that had come to him through his wishing. Finally, King Midas touched his daughter and . . . . .
